

Summer School (3rd Course Workshop) - ARS NAUTICA – SEAFARING THROUGH THE AGES

NAUTICAL HERITAGE OF THE MEDITERRANEAN: RESEARCH, CONSERVATION AND VALORISATION

3 – 10 June 2017 - Preliminary programme

Saturday 3 June 2017

Arrival of the participants

Sunday 4 June 2017

Cultural heritage tour & Welcome reception

10:00-14:00 Cultural heritage tour of Dubrovnik

14:00-16:00 Free time

16:00-17:00 Welcome speeches

17:00-18:00 Discovering Dalmatia
Josip Belamarić

18:00-19:00 Archaeology and history of Dubrovnik
Domagoj Perkić, Irena Radić Rossi

20:00 Dinner

Monday 5 June 2017

Thematic Unit 1 : The ship and its environment: technology and space of navigation

9:00-10:00 Ships and shipbuilding in the Greek and Roman period
Patrice Pomey

10:00-11:00 Ships, boats and harbours in the ancient Mediterranean
Giulia Boetto

11:00-11:15 Coffee break

11:15-12:15 Ships and shipbuilding in the Middle Ages
Eric Rieth

12:15-13:15 Digging in the sea of papers - Archival sources and the archaeological research (The Gnalici Shipwreck case study)
Mauro Bondioli, Mariangela Nicolardi

13:15-14:45 Lunch

16:00-18:00 Presentation of research projects by MA/PhD students and early career Post Doc researchers (30 min per talk)
Discussion

20:00 Dinner

Tuesday 6 June 2017

Thematic Unit 2 : Valorisation of nautical heritage

Thematic Unit 4 (part A) : Nautical archaeology and ethnography in the digital era

9:00-10:00 From the river to the museum: past and present of a Gallo-Roman shipwreck (Arles, France)
Sabrina Marlier

10:00-11:00 The Viking Ship Museum of Roskilde
Morten Ravn

11:00-11:15 Coffee break

11:15-12:15 The museum of Cesenatico and the valorisation of the Adriatic nautical tradition
Davide Gnola

12:15-13:15 Publishing Nautical Archaeology in the 21st century
Miranda Richardson

13:15-14:45 Lunch

15:00-16:00 Nautical archaeology and deep water shipwrecks: the example of the Corsica shipwrecks
Franca Cibecchini, Michel L'Hour

16:00-17:00 The shipwreck of Xlendi (Malta) and the Archaic Mediterranean

	Timoty Gambin, Jean-Christophe Sourisseau
17:00-17:15	Coffee break
17:15-18:00	Discussion
20:00	Dinner

Wednesday 7 June 2017

Thematic Unit 3 : The ship as reflection of a society

9:00-10:00	The shipwreck of Gnalić (Gagliana Grossa, 1583); Archaeology of the Late Renaissance world Irena Radić Rossi
10:00-11:00	The shipwreck of Amsterdam (1749); Archaeology of the European economy in the 18th century Jerzy Gawronski
11:00-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-13:15	Presentation of research projects by MA/PhD students and early carrier Post Doc researchers (30 min per talk)
13:15-14:45	Lunch
15:00-18:00	Presentation of research projects by MA/PhD students and early carrier Post Doc researchers (30 min per talk) Discussion
20:00	Dinner

Thursday 8 June 2017

Thematic Unit 4 (part B): Nautical archaeology and ethnography in the digital era

9:00-10:00	Underwater robotics for the recording of shallow water archaeological sites Nikola Mišković
10:00-11:00	3D Modeling and Nautical Archaeology Pierre Poveda
11:00-11:15	Coffee break
11:15-12:15	Possibilities and limitations of numerical modelling of materials and environment in the nautical archaeology Smiljko Rudan
12:45-14:45	Lunch
15:00-18:00	Presentation of research projects by MA/PhD students and early carrier Post Doc researchers (30 min per talk) Discussion
20:00	Dinner

Friday 9 June 2017

Visit / Dive

Maritime Museum of Dubrovnik (guided by Đivo Bašić)

Located on the first and second floor of Fort St John, the Maritime Museum focuses on the rich maritime history of the Republic of Dubrovnik. The exhibition halls trace the development of maritime trade and shipbuilding throughout the ages from numerous archaeological, historical and artistic documents. Particularly rich is the collection of models of ships and objects related to the maritime culture of Dubrovnik and its region.

Discovering the ancient shipwrecks of Cavtat (in collaboration with the Diving Centre Epidaurum)

The bay of Cavtat (ancient Epidaurus or Epidaurum), contains the remains of several ancient and modern shipwrecks. A steel cage protects a Late Roman shipwreck site, which can be visited through the Diving Centre Epidaurum. The visit will allow participants to discuss the issue of the protection of underwater cultural heritage.

Saturday 10 June 2017 - Field trip

Sunday 11 June 2017 - Departure of the participants